

Forewarned, Forearmed.
Our idea of a prudent man is one who never sees a vampire without thinking of a buzz saw.—Dallas News.

Proper Ambition.
It is very sad for a man to make himself servant to a thing, his manhood all taken out of him by the hydraulic pressure of excessive business. I should not like to be merely a great doctor, a great lawyer, a great minister, a great politician—I should like to be also something of a man.—Theodore Parker.

Class in America.
America is full of middle class folk who feel upper class and lower class folk who feel middle class, but there are no lower class folk who feel lower class.—Baltimore Sun.

An Extravagant Dresser.
The late czar of Russia had the reputation of being the most extravagant of European monarchs as regards dress. The bill of his civil tailor is said to have bordered on $10,000 a year, and that of the military tailor, $15,000.
